Subsidy Say Critics

Refuse City Line

Huge Complex Still May Be Built Here

Canyon City Commissioners turned thumbs down on a request that $50,000 worth of water and sewer lines be installed at city expense to a proposed two million dollar 144-unit apartment complex north of Canyon.

City dads, who heard complaints from about a dozen businessmen at the Tuesday evening session, also said they would not approve a request that the proposed site not be annexed for 10 years.

Primary contention of those protesting the move was that the city should not subsidize a private enterprise with tax dollars. "Any profits from this thing," said businessman Hosea Foster, "would go into the corporation—not to Canyon."

The businessmen said they would welcome the new apartment building to Canyon, but not at taxpayer's expense.

Jim Crockett, representing the W. P. Francis Construction Company of Tulsa, Okla., had asked city fathers last week to approve action on both proposals.

"This seems like a reversal to me," Crockett said Wednesday at his Tulsa home.

"I didn't even know they were going to have a formal public meeting to consider it," Crockett continued.

The Oklahoma developer asked that the city lay water and sewer lines and agree to suspend any annexation plans of the area for a 10-year period. He said money spent on the lines would be recovered within 47 months, through an agreement whereby he would

Equalization Board Meet Set Friday

Canyon School District board of equalization will meet Friday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. in the Canyon High School Cafeteria.

Purpose of the meeting is to hear evidence as to values of properties within the school district.

Hosea Foster is chairman of the board. Tom Black and Jim Fletcher are members and Don Olson and Earl Marrs are alternates.

Foster is a businessman and farmer from Canyon. Fletcher is a farmer and Black is a Canyon businessman. Marrs is an Amarillo developer and Olson is a Canyon farmer.

Juvenile Officer Now On Full Time

Woody Pond has been given a pay raise to $500 a month and put on full-time basis as county juvenile officer.

This action was taken Monday at a meeting of Randall County commissioners court. Pond has been employed on a part-time basis at $275 a month.

The county also furnishes Pond a car and pays for gasoline used. The pay raise and the full-time status will become effective Sept. 1.

Commissioners authorized Sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston to raise the amount paid for meals for prisoners in the county jail. The jail has no cook.

Meals are purchased from the C&M Cafe at 80 cents for supper and lunches and 55 cents for breakfasts. Regular prisoners are fed twice daily, breakfast and supper.

Women, children and trustees are fed three times daily.

Sheriff Johnston also has been authorized to have the jury room in the present courthouse annex remodeled for use by the sheriff's department identification bureau.

Sheriff Johnston said this would not be done until a new court house annex, now in the mill, is completed. County Judge Lloyd King said the rooms, located on the second floor of the present annex, are no longer needed as a jury dormitory facility.

Livestock Presented WT Farm

The presentation of a bull and 14 angus heifers to the West Texas State University Agriculture Department highlighted a day-long gathering of the West Texas Angus Association Saturday.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, head of the WTSU Agriculture Department, accepted the animals on behalf of the university at the Richmond Hales ranch south of Canyon.

Mrs. Bess Fish of Houston, who donated the bull that she purchased in 1962 for $55,000, was present for the ceremonies, along with an estimated 250 members of the angus group. The bull, named "Ermite of Blue Sky", was calved in 1960 and now weighs about 1,800 pounds.

The heifers, which weigh about 800 pounds each and are valued at some $400 each, were given by individual members of the WT Angus Association.

Announcement of the gift to the university was made at a WTSU Agriculture Department (See LIVESTOCK Page 9)

Schools Set Registration Next Week

Two days, Aug. 24 and 25, will be devoted this year to Canyon High School student registration. The school term for all students will begin with classes Aug. 28.

Students at Gene Howe and Rex Reeves Elementary schools will enroll Aug. 25 and enrollment at Canyon Junior High School is scheduled Aug. 24.

All CHS students are to report to the commons area for initial instructions. Procedures will be explained in the CHS auditorium and various phases of the registration will be followed.

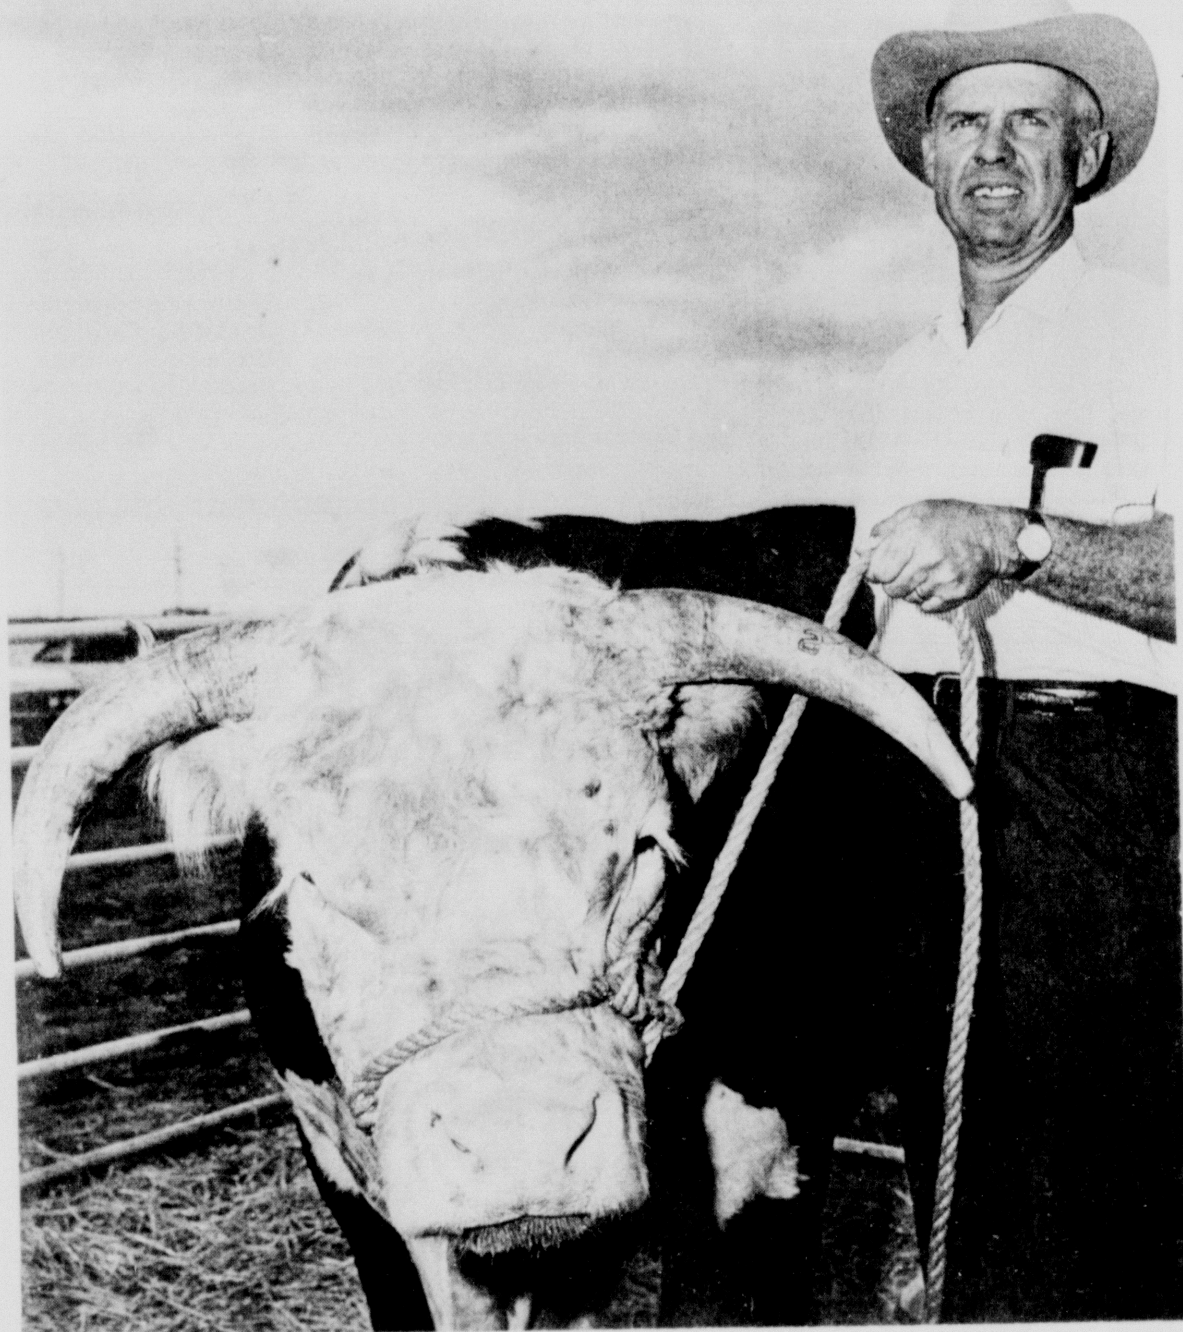

Seniors will register from 8:30 a.m. until noon, Aug. 24, and juniors will enroll from 1:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Sophomore registration has been slated Aug. 25 from 8:30 a.m. until noon.

Freshmen will register from 8:30 a.m. until noon Aug. 24 and eighth graders will enroll from 1:30 p.m. until 4 p.m.

Seventh grade students will register Aug. 25 from 8:30 a.m. until noon.

Students at Rex Reeves and Gene Howe Elementary schools whose last names begin with 'A' through 'K' will enroll between 8:30 a.m. and noon and students 'L' through 'Z' will register between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m.

SHOWN WITH HIS PRIZE BULL, Tex Real Onward, is Meredith Warren. Warren operates Warren Hereford Ranch east of Canyon. The ranch was visited Tuesday afternoon by members of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders

Association as the last stop in a two-day tour. The bull was on display for the tour. The Hereford breeders also visited the Happy Hereford Ranch, operated by Walter Graham.

$1.4 Million Wheat Checks Distributed

Wheat certificate payment checks, which will total about 1.4 million dollars, are being mailed to Randall County farmers, according to Donald Lloyd, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager.

Deadline for filing acreage reports, Lloyd said, is Sept. 1, although farmers may choose to receive payment after the first of next year.

Wheat program participants are guaranteed 100 per cent parity for their share of the wheat used for domestic food. The certificates for 1967-crop wheat will be valued at $1.36 per bushel for the 1966 wheat crop.

"An individual farmer participating in the wheat program can determine his total return per bushel for wheat," Lloyd explained, "by dividing his certificate payments by his total production to get an average per-bushel payment."

By adding this to the price the farmer receives in the market, Lloyd continued, he can find his return per bushel.

Hearing Tonight On Gas Hike

Public hearing on a proposed 11.5 per cent rate increase for Pioneer Natural Gas Company will be conducted tonight, Thursday at 7:30 o'clock in the First National Bank's community room.

City Commissioners have called the hearing to ascertain resident's views on the hike that would add an estimated $8.61 yearly to the average gas statement.

"This request for an increase in the General Service Rate," states an application for the adjustment prepared by C. I. (Stony) Wall, Pioneer Natural president, "is primarily attributable to the increased cost which has been experienced in labor, materials, general taxes, and other operating costs."

Wall, who earlier met with the city commission to request the increase, said his firm would need to study the usage of gas for 1967-1968 to determine if the requested increase was sufficient to meet present operational costs.

Ag Building At University

A new building program at the West Texas State University farm will get underway in early September, according to Dr. Charles Smallwood, head of the WTSU Agriculture Department.

The construction program, which will cost an estimated $33,000, will begin when bids are let on a new steel feed pens and barn complex, Dr. Smallwood stated.

The complex, he said, will be 24 feet wide, 100 feet long and will include five steel pens. The pens will be used for the feeding of sheep and cattle at the farm.

Dr. Smallwood said the WTSU Agriculture Alumni plans to add additional units to the complex which will include a feed room and office facilities.

Existing feed pens and old chicken houses will be moved away, he added.

Also included in the project will be a landscaping of the grounds around the new barns.

Another phase of the building operation, he said, will include 10 new pighouses for farrowing and confined fattening units. Three finishing units are also to be included in the building plans.

Dr. Smallwood estimated the entire operation would take about 18 months.

Joint Meet Set Tuesday

Two governmental bodies from Canyon will meet Tuesday evening with Marvin Springer, urban planning consultant from Dallas to discuss proposed subdivision regulation changes and a pending planning grant for the city.

The City Planning and Zoning commissions will hold the joint session at 7:30 p.m. in the First National Bank community room to discuss the grant's progress through Federal channels and also to study new zoning ordinances.

Springer met two weeks ago with members of the planning commission.

Canyon School Board Okays New Budget

Canyon School board Monday night approved a budget of $1,444,372 for the 1967-68 school year, an increase of $142,953 over the past school year.

Increased cost of instruction was blamed for most of the hike in the budget.

Former Superintendent Huelyn Laycock outlined the causes for the raise in the budget. He said cost of instruction will increase about $88,000. This was brought on by teacher pay raises.

Salary of a business assistant, not budgeted last year, will be $9,900. This salary was paid out of Title III funds last year, he explained.

An electronic posting machine will cost $18,280. Social security will be up about $2,000. Addition of equipment for typing and bookkeeping classes will run about $7,000 and some $5,500 additional money is budgeted for buses this year.

Tax re-evaluation is budgeted for about $5,000 extra this year and legal services are in the budget for $600 not budgeted for the last school term. Transportation costs are expected to be up about $2,000 and an extra $3,800 is budgeted for band uniforms.

The school district is expected to operate on a near balanced budget with additional revenue coming from state sources and from taxes on new property within the district. Also some additional funds from the federal government are expected.

Kids Inc. Meeting Saturday

A Kids Inc. meeting, for all Canyon boys between the ages of 10 through 12 who are interested in playing football, will be held Saturday in Conner Park at 10 a.m., according to Coach Jon Low.

The meeting is important to all those boys who are interested in playing on the Canyon team, which will compete against Kids Inc. opponents from Amarillo in the coming season, Low explained.

First practice session for the squad will be held Aug. 23 at 4 p.m. in Conner Park.

Ages and required weights for players are 10 years old, at least 100 pounds but not over 110 pounds; 11 years old, at least 115 pounds but not over 125 pounds; and 12 years old, not over 120 pounds.

New Draft Form Furnished Board

A new draft form on which undergraduate college students can request deferment has been furnished draft boards, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Friday.

Undergraduates must request deferment under the new Military Selective Service Act of 1967 after the date of its enactment, June 30, in order to be deferred.

The form, titled "Request for Undergraduate Student De-

Contract Let On Park Road

A contract for 2.785 miles of road in Palo Duro Canyon State Park has been awarded to Gilvin-Terrill, Inc. of Amarillo.

The firm submitted a low bid of $131,707.31 on the project.

Grading, structures, base and surfacing at the park entrance and from the number two water crossing to the end of the existing park road five is expected to take 120 working days.

W.V. York, resident engineer here, will be in charge of the project while it is under construction.

ferment (SSS Form 104)," reproduces pertinent provisions of Section 6 of the law dealing with student deferments.

On the form the student states his understanding of the provisions of the law printed on the form, states he is pursuing a full-time college course, and asks for deferment in Class II-S, then signs the form. The blank forms may be secured from local boards.

Colonel Schwartz said that requests for deferment could be made by ordinary letter, too.

"The form is for the convenience of students," he observed. "It will help them understand what the law provides."

CHS Eagle Team Begins Practice

Football practice for the 1967 edition of the Canyon High School Eagles has begun.

The squad, which numbers about 50 this year, is being coached by Jim Greenwood.

"The boys seem to be in pretty fair shape," Greenwood said following the first day of workouts.

He said the conditioning and fundamental exercises would be conducted daily from 7 a.m. until 9 a.m. and from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. at the CHS stadium.

One unusual feature of the squad this year, he noted, is the presence of 26 sophomore players, as compared to an average of 11 in years past. In spot offense practice, "the backs were moving pretty good for the first day," Greenwood declared.

The coach said he hopes to have all the offense set by Saturday when inter-squad scrimmages will be conducted.

The first inter-squad football scrimmage of the Canyon High School Eagles' 1967-68 term will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. on the CHS football field.

The scrimmage will be concluded with a watermelon supper for players and spectators, sponsored by the Canyon Eagle Booster Club.

First season clash for the Eagles will be Sept. 8 when they travel to Phillips.

"Our first scrimmages and practice," he concluded, "indicate things are looking up."

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

Canyon needs an airport. I don't think this will be disputed. Wellington, about a third the size of Canyon, has a nice airport. In fact, they've just completed a paving job on the runways.

Chuck Allen, vice president of Canyon First National Bank, tells me he has just returned from a vacation and the farthest he drove was from Canyon to Tradedown Airport. All the other points he visited, including his hometown of Wellington, have airports.

A lot of people would fly in to Canyon for football games if a landing field were available. Some, no doubt, would also fly in for "TEXAS" and to see West Texas State and the museum.

Some sub-division of local government needs to promote an airport. Possibly an airport district should be considered.

Something should be done. It's ridiculous for the center of the Panhandle's recreation and education facilities to be without an airport in this air age. It's just as shortsighted to refuse to build an airport as it would be to refuse to build or maintain roads.

"TEXAS" had its 100,000th visitor Wednesday evening. Next week the 100th performance of the historical drama will be held in the outdoor theater in Palo Duro Canyon.

Mrs. Ples Harper is the founder of Panhandle Heritage Foundation which produces the drama. Without her the production would never have gotten off the ground.

Raymond Raillard, foundation manager, says the drama would collapse if it weren't for the devotion of those participating in it.

Dr. C. E. Colgate of Amarillo plays the part of Jesse Armstrong, father of the hero Calvin Armstrong, in the drama. He has one short scene and then spends the remainder of the evening reading or just waiting for a member of the cast to drive him home.

Dr. Colgate is a retired pediatrician. He has had parts in several Little Theater productions in Amarillo.

Bob Finnucio plays the part of Dave Newberry. Bob works at the amphitheater until around midnight, arriving home somewhere near 1 a.m. He must get out of bed in time to be on the air on an Amarillo radio station about 5 a.m.

"These people have to love the show or it just wouldn't go on," said Raillard.

Science is coming up with more fantastic accomplishments all the time. You no sooner say it can't be done until someone has done it.

Since 1960, crime in the United States is up 62 percent while the population has increased only 9 percent. Larceny has increased a whopping 77 percent. Murder is up 21 percent and rape is up 50 percent.

Accident Summary

A total of 11 accidents on rural highways in Randall County were investigated during the month of July by the Texas Highway Patrol.

The crashes resulted in one death, 10 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $8,365.

The rural accident summary for Randall County during the first seven months of 1967 shows a total of 84 accidents, resulting in two persons killed, 41 injured, and an estimated property damage of $55,873.

Letter To The Editor

13 Aug, 1967

TO: The Editor
The Canyon News

Dear Editor:

No doubt the drum-beaters for a new Jr Hi-School used their most impressive example of termite damage in the photograph of the door jamb in the Aug 10 issue of the Canyon News. Were the matter allowed to drop there, a sizeable score would be registered in favor of pushing the old girl over the cliff and erecting a new million dollar edifice.

A closer look will reveal, however, that the jamb was only the centerpiece between two doors; was not a load-bearing member; and with a slight modification of the method of hanging that pair of doors could be discarded entirely. In fact, were the same problem to be addressed with today's methods, this stick would have never been installed in the first place. True it is a "hol-low shell", but it seems unfair to blame that on the termites.

The thing was constructed that way. Had I repaired this particular bit of erosion, I would have felt amply repaid with receiving about $50.00 plus cost of whatever doors were used. (It hardly justifies spending $1,000,000.00)

The picture does pose an interesting question or two, tho. Since termites would have taken a considerable amount of time to do that much damage, and since they would most certainly leave approximately a quart of "termite residue" at the foot of that column a large part of which would have appeared out in the open, I wonder why it took so long to be discovered? Also, if this is justification for wrecking the building, should we also wreck the Elementary building? I understand there was a swarm of termites attacked that building some time in the past. (This could be verified or refuted by checking the Exterminator's records.)

In April, at a school Board meeting, I asked the Superintendent if there was a "preventive maintenance program" in existence to delay the erosion of our school bldgs. I was assured that there was ("we're at it all the time").

Then after it was pointed out that, 1. 20 to 30 elm trees 12 to 20 feet tall (indicating a growth of 3-4 years) were firmly imbedded under the north wall of the Jr Hi gym, 2. a window screen at the south end had been unhooked and the window ledge contained a good-sized bird nest complete with dirt and moisture (at times which would rot the window sill 3. The outside steel doors on the Sr. hi building had never had a coat of paint except the factory applied prime coat and were already rusting on the edges. His plea then changed to a "lack of money". I made the mistake of retorting "then let's quit buying $12,000.00 tarps for the college and maintain our buildings." and got "plain-talked" to a little.

When he was queried as to why the fire escape doors were locked during school hours he opined as how he "didn't have time to go around all thirty acres of his buildings and unlock the fire doors." Hasn't heard of "Delegation of responsibility, I suppose.

After this little episode it isn't too hard to guess why the termites weren't discovered. No one ever looked for them. There are other examples of neglect of our buildings readily discernible to anyone familiar with building maintenance.

An effective program of preventive maintenance related to a complex comparable to our school system should include periodic inspections, check lists to follow, supervision to see that it is done thoroughly, and enough money allocated to perform the needed repair work. And the older the building the more thoroughly it should be covered. Records should be kept which would in time indicate that the time was approaching when it would no longer be economically feasible to repair; the tax-payers alerted and preparations be made well ahead of time to replace the structure. They don't fall apart overnight through normal use. There is no reason for a people to suddenly be panicked into voting huge sums of money for buildings.

And supervising a program of this type isn't overly time consuming once it is set up. I supervised bldg maintenance for several Air Force installations scattered from Dallas to Korea to North Dakota over a period of about five years and had time left to: oversee the complete supply activity, Motor pool, sit in the Adjutant's seat when he had to be away, Conduct the necessary court-martials, in my bailiwick, (where I was judge, prosecutor and defense wrapped in one,) and wore other and lesser hats and still punched in at 8:00 and out at 5:00. On a salary much more comparable to that of a starting teacher than a well pedigreed superintendent, too. Yes I had staff, tech and master sgts but there is also principals and asst principals. The job can and should be done.

IMMUNIZATION SHOTS ARE ALSO FOR ADULTS

Toxoids and vaccines are a must for children. They can practically eliminate the dangers of small pox, typhoid, tetanus and others.

But many adults who were vaccinated in their childhood, seem to have forgotten the importance of this protection. Positive prevention does not always last forever and many adults have neglected necessary booster shots. It is important that all adults visit their physicians as soon as possible to get this added protection.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Group Plans Restaurant

Construction on a hamburger specialty restaurant at 2315 Third Street will begin by Sept. 1, according to Art Baker, co-developer of the project.

Baker, who, with his partners in the Amarillo law firm of Miller, Sanders, Baker and Miller plan to construct the restaurant, said possibly to be included in the project would be a small men's clothing store.

The restaurant, which will be approximately 3,000 square feet, should be open for business sometime near the latter part of November, he said.

Baker, who appeared before City Commissioners here last week to request that a water line outside Canyon be extended to the southeast corner of property near the northern city limits, said about 80 per cent of the restaurant's business would be of a walk-in variety.

As Baker said he expected customers primarily from West Texas State University, little parking spaces would be available, save at the rear and sides of the building.

No name has been selected for the restaurant.

The property where construction will begin was formerly owned by the Joe Currie Drilling Company.

Ziegler Leaving T-E Store

Jack Ziegler has sold his interest in Taylor-Evans Farm Store here and is entering the life insurance business.

Ziegler has been with the Canyon store since 1961. Prior to that time he was a partner in the Taylor-Evans operation at Tulsa.

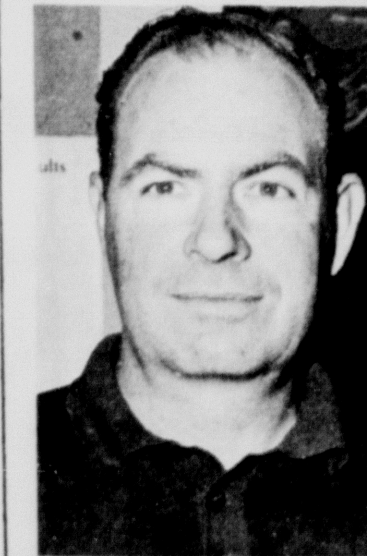

Ziegler grew up at Dimmitt. He will represent Southwestern Life Insurance Company in the Canyon area. Ziegler said he plans to leave the farm store about the first of September and will join Southwestern Life about Sept. 12.

"I have enjoyed working with the farmers of this area and I want to continue to work with them," said Ziegler. "My family and I will continue living in Canyon."

The Zieglers have two children, Jackie, 17 years old, and Joe, 13.

Ziegler said management of the store will be assumed by Paul Read and Don Sheets for the present time. Read is a former manager of the Soil Conservation Service office in Canyon and has been with Taylor-Evans for the past 4 years.

Sheets has been with the firm a little more than 3 years.

Officers Make FHA Plans For A Year

Officers for the Canyon Junior High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America met Monday at the home of sponsor, Mrs. Roy Lyles, to make plans for beginning the 1967-68 term.

Martha Sykes, president, was in charge as the officers practiced the opening rituals.

During a brief business session, plans were made for holding FHA meetings on the first Tuesday night of each month.

Officers will be formally installed in rites September 5 and a swimming party for members and prospective FHA members will be held August 25 at 7:30 o'clock at the City Pool.

Eligible to join the group are all girls who are taking ninth grade home economics courses, or ninth grade girls who had home economics last year.

Eighth grade students who are taking home economics for either the first or second semester are also eligible to join the group.

CORRECT CHECK

(will not be accepted)

INCORRECT
(will not be accepted)

HERE'S WHY:

—Somewhere in the check collection process, your check will probably be handled by a machine that can only read the special characters in the lower left-hand corner that are printed in magnetic ink. A "changed" check will have the wrong number and a customer's draft will have no number.

—The machine will probably route the "changed" check to the wrong bank (if the number is not punched out) and the customer's draft will be rejected by the machine for special handling because it has no number. The special handling required of these checks results in additional expense which may ultimately be passed on to you.

—Beginning September 1, 1967, the Federal Reserve Banks will require these "special magnetically encoded characters" on all checks if they are to be handled through the usual check collection channels.

If it is not convenient to carry your checkbook with you, keep a few blank checks in your pocket, billfold, or purse. Checks printed with correct routing-transit numbers are available from your bank.

Two Canyon Scouts Recall Fun At World Jamboree

Two Canyon Scouts have returned from attendance at the XXI World Jamboree of Boy Scouts at Farragut State Park in Idaho, which was attended by 14,000 scouts representing in excess of 100 countries.

Representing Canyon were Pat Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hickman, and Ronnie Hager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hager.

The two scouts returned to Amarillo Sunday afternoon with a variety of memories from the camp which commemorated the founding camp for Boy Scouts, which was held in 1907 under the leadership of the scout movement's founder, Lord Robert Baden-Powell.

The jamboree encampment was held August 1-9 with the theme being "For Friendship". Hickman said that a special emphasis was given to making friends of foreign scouts. An introduction and get-acquainted project included a "letter-game" where all boys were given letters of a different color and they had to seek out and find a boy with a matching color until they could spell out the word "friendship".

Hickman and Hager agreed that the "Friendship Tower" and line of flags from all of the countries represented was one of the most impressive sites at the encampment. The 60-foot tower was built from steel, wood, stone and fire in keeping with the scout motto and "friendship" banners in a variety of languages were attached to the tower. The tower was surrounded with a series of flags representing the 105 countries who had delegates at the jamboree.

Both Canyon boys were a part of Troop 25, USA Scouts, which was composed primarily of boys from Texas and New Mexico. The campsite for Troop 25 was surrounded with campsites for troops from Belgium, Britain, Canada and Okinawa.

"We found that scouting is worldwide and the same general principles are used in nearly every country, even though some of the countries give their ranks on a different basis," said Hickman.

"It was exciting to meet boys from all over the world," Hickman said. "When we had a program it took an additional 20 or so minutes to hear the various interpretations."

"And it took us an hour and a half to hear a church service in the four major languages which were used," added Hager.

"We found that most of the boys knew at least a little English," said Hager.

"They all wanted to trade for a cowboy hat to take home with them. Some wanted to trade something from their country for a rattlesnake skin or a fox fur," said Hickman, adding that he traded his cowboy hat for a kimono from Japan.

"The whole park was filled with scouts...14,000 of them...and tents were solid in the main camp. You could go up a trail on the side of the mountain and look down on the camp which spread out for miles. The trails were so dusty after all of the scouts tramped around for a week and even though it was heavily wooded, the trails

Donor Of Fine Bull At Angus Meet

Honor guest at the West Texas Angus Association Field Day Saturday on the Richmonds Hales Angus farm south of Canyon was Mrs. Bess Fish.

Mrs. Fish recently gave a $55,000 prize Angus bull to the West Texas State University

Agriculture department. The bull, Emire of Blue Sky, was on display at the field day. While Mrs. Fish visited with Angus breeders, Emire sat on his haunches in a pen filled with hay and earned the nickname, Sitting Bull. The bull has been boarding on the Hales farm the past two weeks. Mrs. Hales said it is a common practice for him to sit like a dog surveying the pastures as he chews his cud.

Mrs. Fish is going out of the Angus breeding business after 17 years and is going to devote most of her time to quarter horse breeding on her 260-acre quarter horse farm at Fort Worth.

Presently Mrs. Fish lives at Houston where her 1100-acre Angus farm is located. Mrs. Fish also has bred Brahma and Brangus cattle. Brangus is a cross between Brahma and Angus. However, since 1952 she has raised only Angus.

Don Beerwinkle went to Houston about two weeks ago to pick up the valuable animal. It was not Don's first association with Mrs. Fish.

As a 4-H Club boy in 1954, he won a calf donated by Mrs. Fish in the calf scramble at the Houston Fat Stock Show.

Mrs. Fish explains her love for cattle. "I lived my first 16 years on a farm in Arkansas and that never got out of me," she said. Her father was a merchant but the family lived on a farm. "We kids had our own horses and livestock," she related.

She bought the Green Valley cattle ranch at Willis, near Houston, in 1950 and the Village Creek ranch near Fort Worth in 1958.

"Before that I was just a housewife," she said.

She looked fondly at Emire of Blue Sky. "I've got a soft spot in my heart for that bull," she declared. "He's always been a pet."

"I've found a good home for him. I'm glad for someone like Dr. Smallwood to have him," she was referring to Dr.

Charles Smallwood, head of the WTSU Agriculture Department.

Mrs. Fish was a guest of the Smallwoods over the week end. She attended a showing of "TEXAS" with them Friday night and was enthusiastic about the show.

"It was great," she said. "It ought to be written up by Life Magazine."

'Battle' Harris Family Visits With Son's Family In Germany

BY LORENA MILLER

Mr. and Mrs. Battle Harris and daughter, Kathryn, have recently returned from a six week tour of eleven foreign countries and a visit with their son, Ronnie, at Nuremberg, Germany. Ronnie and his wife the former Kay Jarnagin of Canyon are stationed at Nuremberg with the Fourteenth Finance Section of the United States Army. Ronnie had saved his Army "leave time" to visit with his parents and show them around his adopted country.

The Harris family toured eleven European countries during their six weeks abroad.

Included on the tour were visits to France, Monaco, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, England, Bavaria, and Germany.

"We really had a trip of a lifetime," said Mrs. Harris, upon returning to Canyon last week. "It was something we will remember always."

"We had saved for some time in order to take our daughter to Hawaii when she graduated from high school and then we decided to go see Ronnie and Kay...so we added a little and took off on the trip."

The group toured Europe in a Volkswagen bus, but they also took in some sites by train and subway, according to Mrs. Harris. "We traveled as commoners...instead of tourists...and had more opportunity to come in contact with the people. They like to use their English...and we had a time trying to communicate in some of the countries we visited."

"One day we were riding on the train and a fellow bounded up to me and said 'At last, I've found you' which was sort of startling to me...as I didn't know anyone over there," said Mrs. Harris, explaining that the young man had heard her using Texas brogue and wanted to meet some folks from home. "We had a number of interesting and funny experiences during our trip," said Mrs. Harris. "One night we went into this Snack Bar and ordered by pointing out something on the menu, which we couldn't read. They brought us out this extra-large plate of cold-cuts, vegetables and potatoes and we thought that was our meal...so we began to eat heartily."

"Then a French pilot came into the place and noticed how we were eating so much of the food...and he came over to inform us that we had also ordered a steak which was on the way and a big dessert," said Mrs. Harris, laughing.

"Needless to say, the girls and I didn't want any of the steak after so many cold-cuts...but my husband and Ronnie managed the steaks and then had to leave off the dessert," Mrs. Harris said.

Results of the trip abroad may be seen throughout the Harris home. They brought back a large selection of appropriate souvenirs including a pair of wooden shoes from Holland, a maiden's cap from Holland, onyx and alabaster pieces from Italy, fondue forks (with exceptionally long handles) from Switzerland, hommel figurines from West Germany, an authentic pair of leather pants and hat from Bavaria in southern Germany, a music box shaped like a chalet from Austria, a handmade cutwork cloth from the outdoor markets in Florence, Italy and many other items.

Mrs. Harris explained that a "fondue fork" is used in Switzerland to fork the food and cook it on a fire at the table as you eat. The fork is also used to dip cubes of dry bread in a cheese sauce.

They also brought home demitasse spoons from each of the countries they visited and Kathryn purchased bracelet charms representing the countries or a national habit of each country they visited.

Along with their souvenirs, the Harrises will have memories of each of the countries they visited. She described France as a "beautiful country of mountains, hills, trees and velvet green pastures with the gorgeous beauty of the Riviera and the Mediterranean as a turquoise blue water bordered with sand, pebbles and colored shells."

"Paris is a city of hustle and bustle filled with beautiful opera houses, fabulous shops and art galleries requiring a lot of time to really see." "Monaco," said Mrs. Harris, "is a picture book place of beauty with friendly people, lovely little shops and hotels all perched along the shores of the Mediterranean. We saw the palace of Princess Grace and Prince Ranier and watched the changing of the guard."

In Italy, the Harrises found a delightful country with resorts, markets galore and a big language barrier. "Austria was a land of towering Alps, ski runs, beautiful towns amid the hills and chalets were covered with flowers," exclaimed Mrs. Harris.

"The snow-covered Alps of Switzerland were accented with quaint little villages, mountain farms and the friendliest people," Mrs. Harris said. "Bavaria," she said, "in southern Germany is a fair-land of castles, villages and church spires nestled in the mountains. It is lush with vineyards growing on the sides of the mountains and the Alps were lost in the clouds they were so high to the top."

Holland was described by Mrs. Harris as a "coastal plain along the North Sea which was a world of its own featuring Dutch windmills, cattle hay-fields and canals. The small villages looked like 'gingerbread houses' and the people all wore native costume."

"The first view of the 'White Cliffs of Dover' really gave the song a meaning for us," said Mrs. Harris. They rode the ferry from Calais, France to Dover, England and then continued their trip to London where they "rode around the country on a 'fairytale' type train". She said that they visited the West Minster Abbey, Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, London Bridge, the Tower of London, Buckingham Palace and many other points of historical interest.

"The people in these foreign countries have a hospitality and eagerness to learn about America that you just can't quite forget when you return home," concluded Mrs. Harris.

BATTLE HARRIS is shown in a pair of "leather pants" from Bavaria in southern Germany which are a keepsake of his trip abroad. Mrs. Harris purchased a number of interesting articles on the trip which are displayed on a table at the Harris home east of Canyon.

KATHRYN HARRIS wears her "wooden" shoes from Holland along with the typical lace hat as she displays an arrangement of demitasse spoons and bracelet charms which she brought home with her from a six-week trip to eleven European countries.

Budget . . .

pected to round out the budget. The school board Monday night voted to keep the tax rate at $1.38.

Four persons attended the public hearing on the proposed 1968 budget will be held at 2 o'clock next Monday afternoon in the commissioners court room in the court house. The budget lists total resources at $1,258,489.20 with budgeted disbursements and transfers to come to about $960,177.95. The proposed budget calls for a balance of $298,312.15 as of Dec. 31, 1968.

Members of the board voted to raise the price of school lunches from 30 cents to 35 cents for the first three grades and the price of lunches for junior high and high school students from 35 cents to 40 cents. Lunches for fourth, fifth and sixth graders will remain 35 cents.

School officials pointed out that the school lunch program lost about $4,000 last year. School business manager Jimmy Plain said the lunch program received fewer federal commodities last year.

Facing social security payments and wage increases under the federal wage and hour law, school officials said they thought it necessary to raise the price of lunches or make up losses out of tax funds.

Canyon School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs, attending his first board meeting as head of Canyon schools, was appointed to represent the Canyon Independent School District on the regional Media Service Board, a post formerly held by Laycock.

The board gave approval for the school's participation in Titles I and II of the Elementary Secondary Education Act. Mrs. W. E. Parker complained that school taxes on her property are not in line with taxes on neighboring property.

She urged that the school board take corrective measures. Elton Cox, school attorney, told Mrs. Parker that she should appear before the board of equalization which meets Friday and that if she were not satisfied with that board's action, her recourse would be in district court.

Cox said the school board is without authority in the case. Fletcher Sims complained that his tax notice, sent out by the school tax assessor's office, was not clear and that he did not understand it.

Sims also was told that he should appear before the board of equalization.

Resignation of Easton Wall as Canyon Junior High School principal was accepted and Dan Trew of Panhandle was hired to replace him.

Resignation of Virginia Fultz, junior high school English teacher, also was accepted.

Also hired, subject to assignment, were Mrs. Mary Jo Stilt, James Dixon Walker, Patsy Boyles, Marcus Phillips and Judith Straughn.

Jerry Blackerby decided to remain as industrial arts teacher and was rehired.

The board voted to make Hosea Foster chairman of the equalization board with Jim Fletcher and Tom Black to serve as members and Earl Marrs and Don Olson to serve as alternates. This was an amendment to an earlier resolution.

Commissioners had two split votes--one of them a tie voted off by Judge King.

Mrs. Terry Martin requested that the county furnish frames and authorize the hanging of pictures of the county's judges in the court house.

Commissioner Bill Butler made a motion that this be done and the motion was seconded by Commissioner B. R. Jones. Commissioners Clarence Beckman and Glenn Dowlen voted nay and Judge King cast a nay vote to break the tie. "If it will make them (the historical survey committee) happy, I guess it's all right," said Butler as he made the motion.

"I'm opposed to it," said Dowlen. "I don't see any need for it."

Mrs. Martin told the court that Gert Rushmer has agreed to take pictures of historical markers in the county and asked that these be placed in the court house.

"I'd like to know what size these are going to be and how much room they're going to take up," said Dowlen.

Jones made a motion favoring the request. Butler and Beckman voted for the motion and Dowlen cast a negative vote.

In other business, the commissioners voted to pay $400 for a historical marker for the JA Ranch, the first ranch in the area having been established in 1876. This marker is to be placed at the turn around in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

Celebration Set In Happy

The first city celebration to be held in Happy for the past 17 years is being planned for August 26 by the Happy Jaycees and other civic clubs.

The public birthday celebration will commemorate Happy's 60th year, according to a spokesman for the Jaycees.

Happy was moved from its original location, two miles east of the present site, when the Santa Fe railroad was extended south from Amarillo. The railroad reached Happy in November 1906.

Cowboys seeking water for their stock first named Happy as "Happy Draw". One report is that the post office sought the name "Happy Hollow", but the request was denied and the name of the town was shortened to Happy, (The Town Without A Frown).

In observance of the 60th birthday of Happy, the Happy Jaycees will sponsor a picnic for Saturday, August 26, at 8 p.m. Jaycees will furnish the food and drinks for the occasion. Celebration activities will begin with bicycle races, followed by a parade at 10 a.m., and an old-timers reunion and luncheon at the park.

A carnival will be in progress throughout the afternoon along with skydiving, airplane rides, Pony Express races, various games, an evening street dance and a western dance at 9 p.m. in the American Legion Hall.

Activities will conclude on Sunday with a steer roping at the Tom Henry arena, near Happy.

Miss Happy Crowning Saturday

The title of "Miss Happy" will be presented to one of seventeen beauty contestants at a contest Saturday night at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Happy High School.

Twenty-six girls, age 6-11, are also vying for the crown of "Little Miss Happy".

Sponsored by the Happy Jaycee-Ettes, the beauty pageant will be open to the public. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Master of ceremonies will be Carroll Killingsworth of Canyon, former principal of Happy High School. Judges will be Mrs. Kay Smiley, Amarillo, Area I Jaycee-Ette vice president; Glenn Richardson, Tulsa businessman; and Quilen Stapleton, Amarillo Jaycee president.

Both contest winners will be crowned and presented with a bouquet of flowers from the Happy Jaycee-Ettes. They will also ride in the celebration parade at Happy August 26.

guarantee the city "at least $12,000 a year in water payments."

Crockett said although he would consider the matter of whether to go ahead with building plans, "I think it will be 'no dice'."

"It would appear to me now," Crockett continued, "if we installed the apartment building, Taylor would have the benefit of the lines at no cost to himself--then the city would probably annex us." The proposed site for the apartment complex would be located just north of Taylor and Sons Lumber Company outside the city limits. City fathers did, however, indicate they would like to have the apartment complex here and would assist its development in any way possible.

"If their coming is contingent on a $50,000 donation," Mayor Paul Lindsey declared, "it sounds flimsy to me."

"I'm reasonably sure," the mayor continued, "for every $1 we get for sewer, we spend $2."

Lindsey said the complex site could possibly be classified as an industrial area, thereby giving the city power to agree to an annexation suspension for seven years.

"The next commission could rule it is not an industrial area," he continued.

"I feel this is discrimination to every taxpayer in Canyon," declared Dr. W. J. Wooten. "I am unwilling to give someone a free ride."

A. W. Lair, businessman and city attorney, said possibly the developer would lay the water and sewer lines at his own expense, with an agreement that the city not annex the property for a seven-year period.

"I don't want to buy any apartment houses," Lair said. "I don't want the taxpayers to have to buy any apartment houses either."

"I understood he (Crockett) wanted to know the feeling of the town to take to his backers," Commissioner Tom Foster said.

Foster said he wanted no one to "get the idea we approved any of this."

When Mayor Lindsey asked if any of those present understood that a final decision had been made at the earlier meeting, none said they did.

"Annexation of this area will come," said Mayor pro-tem H. R. Fulton, Jr., "but we don't know when."

"It's too bad," Crockett said of the commission's decision.

Pioneer received a 10 per cent increase in gross revenue in January of 1961 here.

The increase, which is being requested in Pioneer's 55-city West Texas Distribution System, would become effective later this year. Not affected would be gas rates for industry and agriculture, Wall said.

A recent decision by the Texas Railroad Commission, the body that must approve natural gas rate changes, allows Pioneer Natural a 6.5 per cent rate of return.

The company's rate of return, Wall stated, was 2.35 in 1966.

"We have an obligation to our stockholders--several of them from Canyon--to keep it (Pioneer Natural Gas) in a sound financial condition."

Should the city dads refuse to approve the requested hike, Wall said his firm would take the matter before the railroad commission.

"That's no threat--that is just the law and the way it is," Wall declared.

Wall explained that if the railroad commission found in favor of his company, the City of Canyon or any municipality losing in a hearing would pay costs from $25,000 to $40,000.

"If it goes to the commission, it goes to the commission," Wall continued.

"If we go to the trouble of a hearing, why not ask for all we're entitled to--I think you would do the same thing," he declared.

Commissioners had discussed the possibility of employing a panel of utility experts to conduct a study to determine if the rate increase was justified.

City fathers did, however, agree that one municipality could not effectively block the increase.

Commissioners indicated they wanted to determine public reaction to the increase before any decisions were made.

Last November, a public hearing on a proposed tie-in between Canyon and Amarillo telephone systems was conducted. More than 80 people attended the hearing.
